COMMUNITY LEADERS

Supreme Martial Arts Academy, LLC is a family owned and operated martial arts school made up of Master Brown, his wife, and six sons who teach taekwondo curriculum from ages 4 to adults and seniors.

Belt rank promotions inspire students to excel and TEAM SMA regularly competes in taekwondo Olympic-style sparring tournaments on local, state, and national levels.

Wife and co-owner, Ms. Kelley, is a librarian by profession and incorporates the historical origins of martial arts, while Master Brown and their sons teach modern Olympic-style taekwondo and stress the importance of respect, self-confidence, and discipline.

The Browns are Chicago Heights natives and pillars of the community who deeply believe in youth outreach, self-improvement, and investing back into your own community.
