

2017 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS JUNE 29 - JULY 6

USA Taekwondo can today confirm that the 2017 National Championships will take place at the Cobo Center in Detroit on June 29 - July 6, 2017.

The world's largest Taekwondo tournament will return to the midwest's Motor City for the first time in 9 years, and following one of the most successful Nationals ever in 2016 we are expecting to raise the bar even higher next year!

We'll have much more information on the tournament and its host city in the coming months, and wanted to get this first step - confirming date, location and venue - out for you as soon as possible, to allow you to plan your trips and schedules in good time.

USA Taekwondo Events Director Jeanna Salgado said: "We'd like to thank the Detroit Sports Commission for their help working with us to get this locked down and announced this early - it's been a pleasure working with them and we have total confidence in their ability to help us deliver another world class event. Detroit is a great city and a fantastic location for Nationals, with convenient and affordable access from just about anywhere in the country. It's going to be a great event!"

Below you'll find some information that might just change your perception of Detroit - a city that is finding its feet again!

We love it, and we think you will too!
